Pastoral Prayer of the Day 10-11-2020 – Malone: Centenary UMC

Now let us pray as one body of faith, responding to the phrase, "Jesus Christ, lover of all," with the words, "bring healing, bring peace."

Christ our Lord,
long ago in Galilee, many who were sick and suffering needed friends to bring them to your side.

Confident of your goodness, we now bring to you those who need your healing touch.
We name before you
those who are ill in body, whose illness is long, or painful, or difficult to cure,
those who suffer restless days and sleepless nights.

Jesus Christ, lover of all,
bring healing, bring peace.

We name before you
those who are troubled in mind, distressed by the past, or dreading the future,
those who are trapped and cast down by fear.

Jesus Christ, lover of all,
bring healing, bring peace.

We name before you
those for whom light has been turned to darkness by the death of a loved one, the breaking of a friendship, or the fading of hope.

Jesus Christ, lover of all,
bring healing, bring peace.

In silence we name before you those whose names we may not say aloud.
[Silence]

Jesus Christ, lover of all,
bring healing, bring peace.

And now, be with us as we come to you as your children and pray the prayer that Jesus taught us --

Our Father who art in heaven hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil for thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever.

Amen
