

DAILY BREAD

A benediction from John 6. Written by Kelly Ann Hall.

Jesus, Give to us our daily bread that helps us accept our work for today while giving a taste of what is to come.

May Your sacrifice of body give us the courage to break open and
welcome a change of heart.

May Your sacrifice of body give us the courage to break open and
welcome a change of heart.

Help us in our work of – honoring You, and one another;
trusting You, and one another;
loving You, and one another...

Fold us, shape us as bread on earth.
Hold us in Your peace as we rise beneath Your seal,
and expand in the warmth of Your love.

Each and every one of us
is a gift to receive, treasure and be shared.

We are thankful, for liberty over death!
That we are freed from the worry of our salvation!

We are thankful, for the daily reminder: We are fed.
